NEWHEY, HOWE PLAN PRIVATE POLICE AGENCY

Paul D. Newey, former chief investigator for the state's attorney's office, and retired police Capt. John I. Howe will open the North American Detective agency, 608 S. Dearborn st., June 5.

Newey was an agent for several federal agencies, including the central intelligence agency and treasury department, before joining the staff of former State's Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski. Newey and his staff uncovered the police scandal which led to major reforms in the Chicago police department. Earlier, Newey headed an investigation which disclosed widespread looting of funds in the Traffic court.

Howe, a veteran city policeman, was an assistant state's attorney following his retirement and did special investigations in the prosecutor's fraud and complaint department.
